

CHAPTER 6

6.7 Solicitation by Agents

Only the superintendent is given authority to grant permission to agents desiring to solicit teachers on school premises. This solicitation may not interfere with instructional time. It is being understood that all agents, before making such calls, shall be required to first have a letter of introduction and authorization from the superintendent's office.