Superintendent's Report

Dr. Haines shared a few upcoming events with the Board.

As part of the LOOK Speaker Series that began last year, Alicia Kozakiewicz will be speaking at John Marshall High School on Thursday, September 29th and Cameron High School on Friday, September 30th regarding internet safety. She will be speaking on Tuesday, October 4th at the John Marshall High School CPA to employees and the community at large. We have scheduled our next LOOK speaker series for March 21st 2023. Our speaker is a National Wrestling Alliance World Television Champion, but most importantly, part of the Successful Survivors Speakers Bureau. He will be speaking with middle school students during the day and the employees and public in the evening.

On October 10th at 10am Marshall County Schools will be hosting a Community Task Force to begin discussions on racism and discrimination. The initial meeting will be comprised of parents, school administration, elected officials and community members. The agenda for this group will be to brainstorm a means of making change in the community at large, as well as additional members who may benefit the group.
